RACV TO HOLD RECRUITMENT INFORMATION DAY FOR POSITIONS IN TORQUAY

RACV is holding two information sessions for multiple employment opportunities at RACV Torquay Resort.

There are a variety of positions being recruited such as food and beverage attendants, cooks, chefs, housekeepers, team leaders and managers.

A Recruitment Information Day on Monday 25 of July will be held at the resort, with the first session held at 10am, and another at 1pm. There will be a raffle of prizes for those who attend including an overnight stay at the resort.

RACV Torquay Resort Manager Dean Newell said the positions are open to all to apply and give the opportunity to work at one of Australia's most luxurious and attractive locations.

"All the roles will be playing a large part in providing RACV's exceptional customer service experience to guests.

"Working with RACV is a rewarding and fulfilling experience, with many of our employees moving into other great careers in the organisation over time.

"I'm pleased that we're able to offer these opportunities. Our goal is to continue to grow our team in Torquay and deliver for the local community, and visitors to our region alike," Mr Newell said.

There are a range of flexible working capacities available, from casual positions, permanent part-time and full-time opportunities.

RACV will provide comprehensive training to prepare new staff members with all the tools for a rewarding career.

One of Torquay Resort's Food and Beverage Attendants, Claudia Masek, said she has loved her time in her role, noting the supportive work environment. "The support and training I have received from my managers and fellow team members has been fantastic.

"RACV has provided locals in the area with job opportunities and a rewarding work environment. If you're thinking about applying, go for it," Ms. Masek said.

RACV employees enjoy ongoing training and career development, discounts on RACV Resorts and accommodation, and access to Health & Wellness programs.

Recruitment is currently under way, and anyone interested in learning more about these opportunities, including details of the Recruitment Information Day can contact RACV by emailing leisure\_recruitment@racv.com.au.
