WELCOME

ROB EVERETT RACV Club General Manager

The briskness of June in Melbourne makes for perfect AFL weather. Club members can thrill to the competition's mid-season rounds from the comfort of our corporate suites at the MCG and Marvel Stadium. Up the Swans!

Join us for the second coming of Philippe Mouchel's signature dinner at Healesville Country Club & Resort on Friday 7 August. Philippe made his culinary mark at RACV Club in his inaugural Flavours of Normandy event in July last year. His latest signature dinner showcases the traditional cuisine of Lyon in another spectacular food-and-drink celebration that our members will savour.

Our Black-gold Bounty: Annual truffle dinner with optional paired wines on Tuesday 16 June in the Members' Dining Room also promises to be a seasonal highlight.

Speaking of fantastic food and entertainment value, don't miss this year's Shoku No Kokoro: Japanese dinner event, on Saturday 27 June on Level 17 at City Club.

Executive Chef Kyle Doody and team will guide guests through Japan's vibrant culinary landscape, from bold street eats to delicately composed kaiseki dishes. Enjoy live cooking presentations and a superb five-course dinner alongside traditional Japanese entertainment.

Christmas might be several months away, but members can reserve their seats at our host of festive lunches and dinners (including lavish set menus with drinks packages and à la carte offerings) at City Club (from 7 July) and Healesville (from 6 July). Please book promptly for our most popular date in the RACV Club event calendar.

Looking ahead, Bastille Day on Tuesday 14 July is also proudly celebrated at RACV Club with a French dinner event at City Club and specialty D'Affinois Basque cheesecake made to order from Le Petit Gâteau. Vive la France!

We get into workshop mode in our winter school holidays program next month. This includes the Mad Science and Fantastic Forces workshops at Healesville Country Club & Resort on 2 and 3 July, respectively, which are set to inspire young scientific minds. K-Pop Demon Hunters Lab at City Club on 7 July is sure to be a hit. Feathers, Fur and Scales on 9 July and Little Green Thumbs and Fairy Gardens on 10 July, both at City Club, will also appeal to our naturalists. Visit our Club website's What's On calendar to find out more.

In our next edition, we showcase how to embrace the joys of winter at City Club with premium experiences in elevated comfort food and drinks, showstopping member events and leisure facilities to warm the heart and fuel the senses.

Did you know that Club and RACV members have access to discounted EV-charging stations at City Club, Healesville and all RACV Resorts? For the perfect reset, guests can refuel at our on-site restaurants and bars while they recharge their EVs.

We look forward to welcoming you at RACV Club.

AVOID ONLINE ISSUES: CONSULT A TRAVEL AGENT

Almost half of Australian travellers make a mistake when booking travel online — with experience often spotting the red flags of scammers. Avoid holiday heartache altogether by enlisting a travel agent.

With 82 per cent of Australians booking their own holidays, it seems we've mastered the mechanics of online booking.

But there's a flip side. Nearly 70 per cent worry about making significant booking mistakes – selecting the wrong flight time or date, overpaying, choosing dodgy accommodation, or worse, booking non-refundable deals they end up being unable to use.

This is where an experienced travel agent makes all the difference.

THE SCAMS YOUR RESEARCH MIGHT NOT CATCH

Even savvy travellers fall victim to sophisticated online scams. That picture-perfect safari lodge you've been researching? It might not exist.

Travel agent Lewis once worked with a client researching a South African safari lodge. The websites looked legitimate. The emails seemed professional. Payment was about to go through.

But something felt off to Lewis.

"I contacted a Tourism Board and, thankfully, I did. That lodge had burnt down two years prior," she recalls. "The scammers had created websites and email addresses that seemed legitimate, but experience spotted the red flags."

Identifying scams like this requires direct access to tourism boards and verified industry operators – networks built over years, which no amount of online reviews can replicate.

WHEN CURATION BEATS ENDLESS OPTIONS

Australians spend an average of five hours daily consuming travel content in the 45 days before booking. That's more than 200 hours of research.

More choice doesn't always mean better travel – sometimes it means decision paralysis at 11pm when you've read your hundredth cruise review.

Whether it's mobility, medical needs, dietary requirements, or family logistics, agents solve problems algorithms can't identify.

As RACV Travel & Experiences travel agent Fiona Ryan puts it: "Creative thinking is where we shine – making sure we think of things that you may not have, to elevate your travel experience."

EXPERIENCED TRAVELLERS SEEK TRUSTED SUPPORT

This is true – even for seasoned travellers. RACV Club members Sue and Allan Aberdeen have been touring the globe for many years, but they still turn to RACV Travel & Experiences to finesse their travel plans.

"We enjoy doing the research and deciding on the travel plan before asking RACV Travel & Experiences to fine-tune, talk to the operators, give us quotes and make the bookings," say Sue and Allan.

"They are always very responsive; communicating well, including handling any subsequent changes from the operators. And the (membership) discount is much appreciated; it being a worthwhile saving on our more expensive outings."

Club members Maryann and Rod Larkins also place their trust in the supportive team at RACV Travel & Experiences.

The couple love cruising and say RACV Travel & Experiences are their port of call for all their travel plans. This often includes their extended family of eight.

"We take many cruises – and bookings are often time-sensitive," Maryann says. "RACV Travel & Experiences make it happen the way we want. Whether it's a booking for my husband and I or a family group."

LYONNAISE: AMAZING GRAZE

French chef extraordinaire Philippe Mouchel is primed for his second coming.

We were thrilled to pass the culinary baton from esteemed chef Gabriel Gaté to Philippe Mouchel in July last year for Philippe’s “Flavours of Normandy” signature dinner at Healesville Country Club & Resort.

Guests indulged in a delectable four-course dinner, starting with exquisite canapés and concluding with a showstopping apple tart “Mirliton” (a specialty Normandy dessert) and regional cheeses, each dish perfectly paired with select beverages.

This year is no exception as Philippe showcases the cuisine of Lyon at his second signature dinner at RACV Club. Save the date: Friday 7 August in the Ballroom at Healesville Country Club & Resort.

Philippe says he cannot wait for his second signature-dinner collaboration: “Tastes of Lyon bouchon cuisine”.

“That’s because Lyon bouchon-style cuisine is unpretentious; convivial, generous and comforting.”

Traditional regional dishes include: Saucisson Lyonnais en brioche (sausage in brioche), Lyonnaise fish quenelle with lobster bisque; oeufs à la neige (snow eggs; poached meringues on a rich custard sauce) and pink praline tart (shortcrust pastry with thick cream and almonds in pink, crystallised sugar). Who’s hungry?

Hailing from a family of passionate cooks sourcing homegrown produce, Normandy-born Philippe has the distinction of training with and opening Paul Bocuse’s first signature restaurant in Japan. A string of successful restaurants and awards in Hong Kong, Sydney and Melbourne followed, including Philippe’s eponymous restaurant in Collins Street.

OUT & ABOUT

The ebullient Swing Jazz Supper in April filled Level 17, City Club, with high energy from first to last set, with the Pearly Shells bringing a full big-band sound inspired by Basie, Ellington and swing-era classics. The dancefloor was hot property all night, with guests quick to step up as the music kicked off.

A two-course dinner was served across the evening, with live sets performed between courses, maintaining the rhythm of the night. A hula-hoop performer provided an unexpected visual element that drew keen interest! Overall, the mood was relaxed and upbeat as guests enjoyed a night of music, food and dancing that carried well into the evening.

Dinner with Stephanie Alexander and Annie Smithers in April was a landmark evening for the Club and our largest author talk to date, welcoming 300 guests to Level 17 for a sold-out celebration. The event marked 30 years of The Cook's Companion, the much-loved kitchen staple for more than 500,000 homes since its first publication in 1996.

Guests enjoyed a menu inspired by The Cook's Companion, featuring avocado bavarois with crab and finger lime to start, followed by Justin's roast rack of pork with apples and carrot, served with roasted potatoes and rosemary. To finish, Mara's tiramisu with vermouth and amaretti provided a fittingly indulgent end to the evening.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

We share insights from RACV Club member James Kirby about how he joined the Club and what he considers are his member benefits and contributions.

WHY DID YOU BECOME AN RACV CLUB MEMBER?

I had an unusual introduction to the Club. The RACV sponsored a journalism prize, which I won. So, I got free membership for a year in the City Club. I had never even heard of it at the time, so when I turned up, I couldn't believe there was this Club with a pool and squash courts in the middle of the city.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN A MEMBER?

Since 1999. I'm a gold member now — and it's become a special place for me.

WHAT DO YOU ENJOY MOST ABOUT MEMBERSHIP?

The gym is my favourite place in the Club — it's huge and it's never too full. I like to use the sauna in winter and the ice bath in summer.

ARE YOU AN ACTIVE PARTICIPANT IN THE RACV CLUB COMMUNITY?

I've been to a birthday party in the City Club in a private room on the lower ground floor. They keep some amazing old wines down there, which my friends tell me are rare.

WHAT DO YOU OFFER AND GAIN FROM YOUR INVOLVEMENT?

I think as people tend to go into the office less, it's more important than ever to have a city base. I'm impressed with the range of RACV Club events that are on offer, as well. Hopefully, someday, I'll have the time to participate!

WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE RACV RESORT AND WHY?

My favourite resort is Noosa. I thought it was a great idea to move outside Victoria. All I want now is an RACV resort in Port Douglas — that would be ideal.

Lively entertainment throughout the evening includes Can-can dancers and a French trio band — creating a celebratory ambience.

WELLNESS

WINTER GLOW: IN THE KNOW

Winter is the ideal time to focus on deeper nourishment, anti-ageing solutions and restorative care.

As winter arrives, the combination of crisp winds, colder temperatures and low humidity begin to challenge the skin. During this seasonal shift, you may notice increased dryness, tightness and loss of radiance as the environment rapidly pulls moisture from the skin. These changes are more than surface-level discomfort. Supporting your skin's barrier function becomes non-negotiable in avoiding amplifying signs of ageing such as fine lines, dehydration and loss of firmness.

Your skin's barrier is its structural defence. When reinforced, it keeps moisture in, protects against environmental damage and supports a smoother, plumper appearance. This is where targeted ingredients and the right skincare philosophy make all the difference.

Cooler months allow the skin to better tolerate active ingredients and professional treatments, making it the perfect season to address long-term concerns such as uneven tone, premature ageing and loss of elasticity.

A committed approach maximises results, helping the skin adapt and thrive throughout the season, rather than simply coping with it.

ADVANCED PERFORMANCE FACIAL SERIES AT ONE SPA

The Advanced Performance Facial Series is an illuminating, high-performance facial sequence designed to revitalise dry, sensitised and prematurely ageing skin. This treatment begins with a deep, thorough cleanse and professional exfoliation to refresh the skin and prepare it for optimal absorption. Once refined, the skin is drenched in active botanical elixirs, potent antioxidants, essential skin-fortifying lipids and clinical-grade vitamins.

Each step works synergistically to restore barrier integrity, replenish hydration, rebalance pH and encourage optimal skin function.

KEY BENEFITS

- Anti-ageing support to address lines, loss of firmness and premature ageing
- Rejuvenates, firms and tones for a lifted complexion
- Brightens and evens skin tone, reducing pigmentation disparities
- Promotes wellbeing, leaving the skin and senses restored and balanced.

For the most transformative and lasting results, we recommend a series of six Advanced Performance Facials, performed every four to six weeks.

To learn more about this results-driven treatment or to secure your facial series, we invite you to book your Advanced Performance Facial and begin your winter-skin transformation.

RACV Club's star chefs, Kyle Doody, Josh Cochrane and newcomer Raman Kaur (the event's first female contestant), tested their mettle in this year's Four Chef Showdown at Healesville Country Club & Resort in April. The fourth edition was another thrilling live culinary showdown, creating imaginative paddock-to-plate dishes with wines paired by Healesville Resort General Manager Andrew Whalan. The best part was our Club members decided the winner – Josh Cochrane retained the title with his melt-in-the-mouth pear millefeuille.

Sanguine Harvest Day, held at Sanguine Estate, Heathcote, on Sunday 22 March was a resounding success – blessed with blue-sky weather.

Thirty Club members joined the Sanguine team to pick the RACV-sponsored vines allocated to the Members' Blend Shiraz.

Following the pick, members participated in destemming and traditional foot stomping of the grapes to initiate fermentation.

The day concluded with a delicious paella lovingly prepared by Executive Chef Kyle Doody and Food & Beverage Manager Nicholas Seol.

We look forward to eventually enjoying the aged final product in the Wine Bar at City Club.
