Autumn is the perfect time to savour the flavour of succulent duck. Redolent with a distinctive, gamey quality, this dish is indicative of seasonal menu changes at Banyalla at RACV Healesville
Country Club & Resort.

WELCOME

ROB EVERETT RACV Club General Manager

The month of May is busy and beautiful. The stunning autumn leaves descending on Healesville and surrounds hark back to equally heraldic events, such as the highly enjoyable President's Cup Golf Day in March.

The Healesville Picnic Races is always a winner. An even brighter sight was the full marquee of Club members savouring the rustic fare and soaking up the autumnal sunshine. See page 14.

Closer to home, another electric Four Chef Showdown took place last month at the Club. Two City Club versus two Healesville Country Club chefs equals a night of exceptional cuisine and fierce competition. Congratulations to Josh Cochrane and Lalit Kumar, who tussled valiantly to secure joint-winner status. We'll feature this event soon.

We're thrilled to launch our unprecedented early-access, premium events program. RACV Club Priority Pass gains members entry to showstopping sports, food and drink and entertainment events — not just here, but also internationally. See pages 6-7 for more.

Happy Mother's Day to all the wonderful women who shape and support our world. RACV City Club and Healesville Country Club & Resort are hosting activities, delectable high tea and luncheon options on Sunday 11 May that are sure to delight and excite.

Keep an eye out in our next edition about our 20th anniversary gala dinner at City Club. We also feature the new vanguard of French cuisine, Philippe Mouchel, who takes the mantle from the esteemed Gabriel Gaté at Healesville's signature dinner event in July.

Don't forget to check out the new-look Club website racv.com.au/racv-club. It's now easier than ever to find out about the great member benefits on offer.

A friendly reminder to members to please ensure you always tap your card at the Club. I look forward to seeing you there.

HEART AND SOUL OF JAPANESE CUISINE

Prepare yourself for a journey through Japan's vibrant culinary landscape, from bold street eats to delicately composed kaiseki cuisine.

Meaning “food of the heart” or “spirit of the food”, Shoku no Kokoro – the alluring title of City Club's forthcoming dinner event – epitomises the passion and precision of Japanese cuisine.

The purity of Japanese cuisine is exemplified by its harmonious elements, natural essence and pursuit of flavour perfection, also known as umami.

RACV City Club Executive Chef Kyle Doody knows these tenets well. As the founding mastermind behind Mr Miyagi (“a playful spin” on the food and flavours of Japan, in Chapel Street, Windsor), Kyle will guide you through a night of exceptional flavours, where Japanese ingredients and modern interpretations meet in perfect harmony.

The menu's format and style will of course depend on the freshest, local ingredients, with dishes planned, prepared and executed to finesse.

City Club Executive Chef Kyle Doody presents exquisite Japanese cuisine.

Throughout the evening, guests will enjoy a live cooking presentation from Kyle, while also experiencing the rhythm of traditional Japanese entertainment. Every bite and every moment bring you closer to the spirit of Japan's culinary mastery.

● Shoku no Kokoro: Japanese Dinner will be held on Saturday 7 June, from 6pm-10pm on Level 17, City Club. Cost is $165 per person. Ticket includes a five-course dinner, beverages and entertainment.

BLAST FROM THE PASS

An exciting, new early-access program, exclusive to RACV Club members, takes centre stage at leading local and international venues for spectacular events.

RACV Club General Manager Rob Everett offers members unprecedented event access.

Haute cuisine par excellence is on the menu at Priority Pass partner Vue de Monde.

Imagine having the key to unlock a world of exclusive experiences in sport, music, dining, and entertainment — all at your fingertips.

Our valued Club members are invited to gain unprecedented access to a new level of unforgettable premium experiences with the launch of RACV Club Priority Pass.

RACV Club General Manager Rob Everett recently trod the hallowed turf of the MCG to launch Priority Pass.

“This isn’t just any program; this is your priority access to a new, exclusive offering, including presale access, to some of Melbourne’s most iconic events, including sport, entertainment, music, travel and dining,” Rob said.

“Following the tremendous success of our corporate suites at the MCG and Marvel Stadium, we are delighted to expand our offering, bringing an even broader range of exclusive experiences to our Club members.”

Priority Pass offers a unique opportunity to secure the best tickets in town. For an annual fee of $199, you can enjoy pre-sale access to a wide range of premium events, ensuring you never miss the moments that matter most.

Whether it is a sold-out concert, a championship game, or a luxurious dining experience, Priority Pass opens the door to unforgettable memories.

RACV Club Engagement & Experience Manager Simone Langdon says the basis for the program is “Your club, your way.”

“Whether you’re into The Ashes or a beautiful dining experience at Vue de Monde – we wanted to ensure that everyone can feel that unique experience in the way that matters most to them,” Simone says.

“Something that was important to me was being able to offer a range of event experiences that are tailored for everyone.

“The demand in our corporate suites has been phenomenal and Priority Pass is an extension of this unique offering. We are excited to see how Priority Pass evolves in the coming years, and we are thrilled to offer our members such premium experiences at RACV Club.”

Join us in celebrating the launch of Priority Pass and be among the first to experience its exclusivity. Please note: early access to concerts and sporting tickets starts from 1 July onwards.

To find out more, visit <https://www.racv.com.au/racv-club/events-experiences/priority.html> or call our Club Events team on 03-9944 8888.

GETTING PERSONAL

With winter on the way, health and fitness should be high on members' agenda. There's no better way to achieve your goals than with a targeted, personal training program.

Personal training is simply the best way to stay in shape and improve your overall health and fitness. There is no other exercise regimen as solely focused on individual training aims.

At RACV City Club and Healesville Country Club & Resort, we recognise this and provide members with the facilities and impetus to fulfil their fitness goals.

City Club Fitness Supervisor, Lifestyle, Renee Quayle says personal training provides expert guidance, accountability and tailored workouts to help clients achieve their fitness goals safely and effectively.

"With over 200 sessions delivered each week (at City Club alone), our team of dedicated trainers deliver consistent, high-quality support to a wide range of members," Renee adds.

Our Personal Trainers can help you to reach or maintain a healthy weight, increase your strength and lean muscle, offer fun and varied training sessions, teach you correct technique to maximise results and provide exceptional service and nutritional advice.

For bookings and enquiries, call Fitness Centre City Club on 03-9944 8860 or email fitnesscentre@racv.com.au

Reciprocal Club

Colonial-style opulence is captured to advantage at this appealing, old-world resort. The British Club, Singapore, is an exclusive hilltop retreat, offering a diverse array of sports and family-oriented facilities, set amid lush greenery. Members can enjoy exceptional restaurants and versatile event spaces, state-of-the-art fitness spaces, three swimming pools, day spa, workspace hub and library.

RACV Club members need to arrange a letter of introduction prior to visiting a Reciprocal Club.

VARIETY

LIFE IS A CABARET

Mystery, intrigue and a night of pure glamour are in the cards at a special City Club event this month.

Channelling the elegance of 1920s glamour is not only within reach but embraced at the enchanting City Club event, Twilight Cabaret: Magic, Music & Mystique.

Step into a world where the elegance of The Great Gatsby meets the wonder of magic and the thrill of dance. Members will be mesmerised by the fusion of flapper glamour, intricate choreography and mind-blowing illusions.

You will be entranced by a special night where every step, spin and sleight-of-hand transports you into a dazzling dream.

The event takes place on Friday 30 May at 6:30pm-9pm on Level 17, City Club.

Ticket price of $120 per person includes canapes, main meal, bonne bouche and all beverages.

This will feature a Great Gatsby-themed dancing show, singer Lola Von Soul captivating the audience with her dulcet tones, reality-defying magic show, photo opportunities with dancers and the incomparable and in-demand roving magician, Damien Boog.

Damien approaches performance with a fresh perspective, moving beyond the clichés of rabbits and top hats. Instead, he presents mentalism and magic in a contemporary style that resonates with today's audience.

"For me, it's not just about performing tricks—it's about forging connections, igniting wonder and creating lasting memories," Damien says.

"My routines highlight the fascinating intricacies of the human mind, demonstrating the incredible potential within all of us. I blend magic, suggestion, influence, cold reading and theatrical elements to deliver an experience filled with joy and amazement."

Fittingly, members are invited to become part of the magic, music and mystique by dressing in Gatsby/1920s-style theme.

Act quickly to reserve your spot at Twilight Cabaret: Magic, Music & Mystique. Call 03-9944 8888.

Unprecedented demand for the March intake of RACV City Club's Mentoring Program has led to a new cohort of mentors and mentees.

Forging mentor/mentee relationships to enhance personal development and business potential is alive and kicking at City Club.

The March intake for the mentoring program was the Club's largest on record, so due to popular demand, a new intake has been organised for 6-8pm on Wednesday 21 May and Thursday 22 May at Level 2 City Club.

The Club Mentoring Program gives fellow Club members the opportunity to connect with like-minded individuals through a structured mentee-and-mentor professional and personal development program.

Cofounder and facilitator Michael James says his role is to provide the appropriate governance, specialist advice and coaching support to mentees, mentors and RACV Club staff who are involved in the program's success.

A mentor in the program's inaugural intake in 2017, Karen Borg says her role is all about giving back. "It doesn't matter what stage or age you're at in life, everyone needs to have a mentor," Karen says.

With her professional background in finance and private health insurance, Karen says these programs didn't exist when she started her banking career in 1984.

Mentees and mentors are professionally matched based on the skills and goals identified through an application process.

Having mentored five mentees since joining the program, Karen emphasises that the learning process is a two-way street. "I learn so much from my mentees that sometimes I have to pinch myself and think: which way is this relationship?," Karen says.

Embarking on his second mentoring assignment for the program, business advisor, executive coach and author Ray Hodge agrees. "I have found it a real gift to be able to give back to the younger businesspeople, while at the same time, learning from them," Ray says. "I always think I benefit more in these situations."

Michael concurs about the sense of purpose the program provides for mentors and mentees alike. "It's more than just a mentoring program," he says. "It's about having the privilege to witness and have a positive impact on the lives of our fellow members."

Michael also seeks to reassure members that they don't have to be industry experts imparting their knowledge and wisdom on mentees to be mentors of this program.

"It's more about life experiences than career advancement," he says.

The program is run over 14 weeks and begins with an induction evening and concludes with a celebration reception and finale dinners on Wednesday 3 September and Thursday 4 September.

To find out more, email mentoring@racv.com.au.

OUT & ABOUT

Eighty Club members and their guests attended the delicious luncheon at the Healesville Picnic Races in perfect autumnal sunshine on Saturday 22 March. This annual event is a favourite on the Club calendar. Race five at this year's event, also known as the Golden Thong, is proudly sponsored by Healesville Country Club & Resort. The race's winner, jockey Melinda McDonald riding Sacra, second placegetter, Shaun Cooper on Retrospection and third placegetter, Sophie Clayfield on Chestnut Thunder, were the recipients of our distinctive Golden Thong awards.

The Art of Lunch at City Club on Saturday 29 March was an immersive experience, combining the talents of chefs, art curators and artists. The elaborate dishes inspired by the Women in the RACV Collection exhibition complemented the thought-provoking talks by three of the artists, which in turn fostered lively discussions around the table. The art-inspired dishes were exceptional.

ESCAPE

Paddlers afloat on the aptly named Emerald Lake in Banff with Rocky Mountain backdrop.

ROCKIES ROAD: BEST OF CANADA AND ALASKA

The panoramic cities of Calgary and Vancouver, the majestic landscapes of the Rocky Mountains, the breathtaking waters of British Columbia and much more - there's never been a better time to embark on a once-in-a-lifetime trip in Canada and Alaska.

Take in the city skyline of pristine Vancouver.

Natural splendour and breathtaking vistas abound in Canada and Alaska. For must-see destinations and an unforgettable itinerary, we offer the ultimate travellers' guide.

C-ING IS BELIEVING: CALGARY AND THE CANADIAN ROCKIES

Starting in Calgary, also known as 'Cowtown' or 'Stampede City' due to its infamous annual rodeo festival, you'll be treated to small-town charm with big-city atmosphere. Friendly locals, great Western Wear shopping, and world-class steakhouses can all be found in Calgary. The majestic Rockies is just a couple of hours' drive away.

Your first stop in the Rockies is Banff National Park. Known for its phenomenally coloured lakes and high mountain peaks, Banff is Canada's first national park and one of the world's most famous alpine destinations.

Banff is simply breathtaking from any angle, but a bird's-eye view is next-level amazing. Embark on a heli-flightseeing tour to take full advantage of the dramatic landscapes.

BEST OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

The bustling west coast seaport city of Vancouver is a great urban pitstop between all the natural sightseeing. Known for its thriving art, music and restaurant scenes, a few nights here will keep anyone entertained.

Whistler, an international mecca for mountain sports, is another town that offers something for everyone. Hopping on a unique floatplane flight is one of the best ways to see Whistler, offering spectacular views of the surrounding mountains, glaciers and valleys.

ALLURING ALASKA

Juneau, Alaska's capital city, is a magnificent introduction to the most northerly state of the US. Known as the most picturesque capital city in the country, Juneau is sandwiched between snowcapped peaks and turquoise seas and is a true photographer's delight. Another feast for the senses in Juneau is the famous Alaskan wild salmon. Make sure you sample this local dish cooked over an open alder-wood fire, best served with one of the fantastic locally made ales.

Undoubtedly the highlight of a Canadian and Alaskan adventure is the jaw-dropping scenery. Cap off this trip by cruising through the waters of the Inside Passage to the World Heritage-listed Glacier Bay National Park.

Now's the time to book this once in a lifetime trip and treat yourself to the unforgettably unique sights and culture that this special part of North America has to offer.
