For more specials at all our venues, visit RACV City Club or call (03) 9944 8888.

WELCOME

ROB EVERETT RACV Club General Manager

November is always a special time at RACV Club, with the excitement of Melbourne Cup and spring racing events in full swing.

The accolades continue for Members' Dining Room at City Club. Hot on the heels of scooping the Best Deluxe Restaurant Award at this year's Victorian Accommodation Awards for the second-year running, our members' favourite fine-dining venue has been inducted into the Hall of Fame at Australia's Wine List of the Year Awards 2025. Congratulations to RACV Club Sommelier Camm Whiteoak and all the exceptional team.

We're thrilled to unveil our stunning Shared Workspace extension on Level 1, City Club, and introduce a new Members' Retreat for relaxation and informal catchups. Many months in the transformation, these premium spaces are designed to enhance our all-important membership experience, personally and professionally.

With party-season celebrations to look forward to, it might be our place, but it's your party.

For customised corporate, end-of-year, Christmas and New Year's Eve events, RACV City Club and Healesville Country Club & Resort offer a range of fantastic indoor-and-outdoor venues and food-and-drink packages to suit all parties (big and small).

Contact our helpful Conferences & Events team to find out more.

For ladies and gents, feeling refreshed and recharged for your party calendar starts with getting your skin prepped for summer. Who better to advise about this and ensure our Club members are at their radiant best than our expert spa therapists at One Spa, City Club and Healesville.

The AFL season might be behind us, but it was a Grand Final to remember! Our sellout pre-final luncheon was also a smash hit. A full house of member fans was treated to a fantastic, themed menu and thoroughly entertained by footy personality Brian Taylor and expert panellists Hamish McLachlan, Kate McCarthy, Kane Cornes and Nick Riewoldt. See our Out & About page for more.

Travel is on the agenda — with two events at City Club to bookmark. Reserve your place for the Intrepid Travel talk on Thursday 6 November, from 6pm to 7:30pm, and the Grand Pacific Tours event on Wednesday 19 November from 11am to 12:30pm, both on Level 2.

Christmas is just around the corner and our special-event luncheons are filling up fast. But there's still time to make a booking for our festive events.

Why not share in the pre-Christmas spirit at RACV City Club and Healesville by booking your next event with us? We are very pleased to offer our Club members the festive specials on page 2 from mid-November and throughout December. We look forward to welcoming you soon.

Mini pavlova with meringue kisses, white chocolate chantilly, passionfruit gel and lemon balm is part of the Christmas menu at Members' Dining Room. PHOTO: Matt Harvey

CRUISE AUSTRALIA'S LAST FRONTIER

Travel to exotic locations without sacrificing comfort and indulgence on a Top End luxury cruise.

Heading on board a cruise from the Top End to the remote and untouched Kimberley region is a fabulous way to explore the world's oldest culture and natural beauty that few travellers have truly experienced in depth.

Western Australia's Kimberley region spans over 400,000 kilometres and encompasses extraordinary wilderness, waterfalls, coastline, cliffs and other natural phenomena unique to Australia.

Cruise in luxury through breathtaking landscapes, towering falls, ancient rock formations and pristine waterways, with opportunities to explore closer by foot, air and sea to understand the vastness of one of the earliest settled parts of the Great Southern Land.

THE ON-BOARD EXPERIENCE

On board, the expert discovery team also provide insightful commentary, ensuring you don't miss a single highlight.

From the comfort of your lavish balcony suite, you can discover the rich Aboriginal heritage of the region and explore the majestic King George Falls.

Explorers on this cruise can also choose from a wealth of experiences, from hiking to caves that explore artworks from the history of the Ice Age, to adding on a once-in-a-lifetime experience to helicopter over the Montgomery Reef.

Once back on board the all-inclusive, 6-star ultra-luxury Discovery Yacht, you can recover from a day exploring in the sun with a range of classes including Pilates, yoga and meditation; or head to the spa to experience a range of infrared and relaxation saunas, lounges and therapies.

Come nightfall, choose from up to 10 different dining experiences with all-inclusive beverages, from fine French dining to heading to your own culinary masterclass, or take a visit to the night market, an eight-course themed flavour journey. You can then leisurely retire to your suite, calling on your personal butler for a nightcap before drifting off to the smell of the ocean.

Travelling between April and October is the perfect time and way to cover this Australian piece of paradise while enjoying world-class amenities, excursions, dining and experiences.

BROOME HIGHLIGHTS

One of Broome's undeniable highlights is the 22-kilometre-long Cable Beach, Western Australia's most famous landmark and often classed as one of the world's best beaches. Its squeaky white sand, sparkling turquoise waters, epic sunsets and red-duned trails through Minyirr Park impress. A popular Cable Beach activity is taking a sunset camel ride.

HORIZONTAL FALLS

According to David Attenborough, the Horizontal Falls are "Australia's most unusual natural wonder". In a country like ours, this is a significant statement. Located 255 kilometres from Broome, the Horizontal Falls have the unusual phenomenon of fast-moving tides gushing through narrow gorges in the Buccaneer Archipelago.

CLUB
UPGRADES

CITY CLUB UNVEILS VIBRANT BUSINESS AND RETREAT HUB

The Shared Workspace extension and new Members' Retreat on Level 1 offer the perfect place and space to do business and relax with fellow members.

Important upgrades have recently been completed to transform the Shared Workspace. These enhancements provide greater flexibility, privacy and scope to support the way our members work, meet and connect.

The Shared Workspace extension offers two six-person rooms to suit small team discussions or private meetings.

A 16-person room with flexible configuration is ideal for larger gatherings, presentations and intimate dining experiences.

In addition, three new meeting rooms are perfect for confidential calls or virtual meetings without distractions.

The inclusion of five private phone booths, more space for members to work comfortably during busy times and 14 additional working points add to the overall experience.

These upgrades reflect our commitment to providing a premium, member-focused environment that supports productivity and professional needs within the Club.

Access to the Shared Workspace is included in Executive and Access memberships or as an upgrade add-on.

MEMBERS' RETREAT – A SPACE TO UNWIND OR CONNECT

The Members' Retreat is a newly introduced lounge space designed exclusively for RACV Club members.

Thoughtfully curated to offer a warm-and-welcoming atmosphere, the Retreat is perfect for relaxing between meetings or activities; hosting informal catchups with fellow members; and enjoying a quiet moment with a coffee or book.

The space is also versatile, with capacity to transform into a small event venue when required — ideal for intimate gatherings, private functions or Club-hosted experiences.

● Find out more: Visit our host desk on Level 1, City Club, in the café area, which is staffed from 8:30am to 5:30pm, Monday to Friday. Call (03) 9944 8080 or email hostdesk@racv.com.au.

MEET &

A GROUP FOR ALL INTERESTS

RACV Club's interest groups power through the summer months and beyond. Here is our list of the full range of dedicated groups for you to choose from.

Connecting with your member peers is easy and rewarding with RACV Club's multitude of interest groups and activities.

Catering to all tastes from billiards to bridge, squash to solo — and everything in between — there is something of interest for every member.

The Investors' Group is increasingly popular. Join fellow members on the first Friday of the month at Level 2, City Club, from 10:30am for insightful discussions on markets, strategies and investment trends.

Daniel Reaper, MBA, founding partner and portfolio manager Grey Street Partners is one such featured speaker whose investment views are always keenly absorbed. His hosted event in July 2025, focusing on New World Orders — investment paradigm shifts that shape the world as we know it — shared the highest turnout (50 attendees) for an investors' luncheon to date with Jun Bei Liu on 4 April and Angie Ellis in November last year.

Professional guidance, rather than investment insights, is on the agenda for interested investors.

"Attending members at the investors' luncheons gain an open source to different levels of experience in financial markets," Daniel says.

Given the range of attendees, what would he suggest for investors?

"For novice investors, the most important first step is understanding your investment objective and your tolerance for risk," he says.

Investors' luncheons to look out for at RACV City Club include Hedley Widdup (managing director at Lion Selection Group) on 7 November, Noel Whittaker, best-selling author and leading finance expert, sharing insights as one of Australia's foremost voices on money and our first 2026 guest speaker is AFL legend turned investment manager Chris Judd, now a private investor focused on global macro insights and data.

WELLNESS

SUMMER-SKIN READY

Soaking up the sun's rays after winter's enduring chill has its pluses and challenges. Here's how to prepare your skin for summer.

With summer on the way, we face the prospect of enjoying the warmer climes while also protecting our skin against its harsh effects.

One Spa Manager Erin Giulieri has some essential skincare tips for Club members.

CLEANSE GENTLY

Start and end your day with a pH-balanced cream cleanser. It removes impurities like perspiration, sunscreen and pollution without stripping your skin's natural moisture barrier.

HYDRATE WISELY

Swap heavy creams for a lightweight gel moisturiser. These absorb quickly and hydrate deeply without feeling greasy — perfect for warmer weather.

POWER UP WITH SERUMS

Vitamin C serum: Brightens, protects and helps fade sunspots. Sodium hyaluronate is another hydration hero that plumps and smooths.

EXFOLIATE WITH CARE

Gentle exfoliation is key, especially for sun-kissed skin. Overdoing it can damage your skin barrier. Select mild exfoliants for both face and body.

MIST ON THE GO

Keep a copper peptide mist in your fridge and handbag. It's refreshing, hydrating and packed with skin-repairing peptides.

INTERNAL HYDRATION

Add LaGaia lavender water drops to your water bottle for a calming, skin-supporting boost. Staying hydrated is essential for maintaining your skin's elasticity and glow.

REAPPLY SUNSCREEN

Top up your sunscreen regularly, especially after swimming and exercise.

For all-important after-sun care, immediately soothe, repair and restore parched skin.

"Even with the best protection, your skin may need extra TLC after a day in the sun," Erin says.

ONE SPA TREATMENTS TO TRY

- One-hour energise body treatment: Revitalise parched skin with this full-body treatment. Refines skin tone and texture with a stimulating body and facial exfoliation, encouraging gentle detoxification. $195 | $175 M
- One-hour customised facial: Tailored to your skin's unique summer needs. Restore a healthy, clear complexion with this deeply cleansing and luminating treatment, tailored to suit your skin. $200 | $180 M
- One-hour foot ritual: Soothe and refresh feet after long beach days. Foot soak; exfoliation; cuticles; heels; mask; massage; file and polish. $135 | $125 M

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

We share insights from RACV Club members Len and Rosalie Walker about why they joined the Club, what they consider are their member benefits and contributions, plus invaluable ideas for potential events/activities.

WHY DID YOU BECOME AN RACV CLUB MEMBER?

I became an RACV Club member when I was working as a consulting engineer in the city. I had been invited to consider joining one of the more exclusive city clubs at the time, but found the more relaxed atmosphere at the RACV (then in Queen Street) to suit better for either a social meeting during the day or an overnight stay with my wife Rosalie to see a play or concert.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN A MEMBER?

I joined in 1972, so it's been 53 years. The time has passed very quickly!

WHAT DO YOU ENJOY MOST ABOUT MEMBERSHIP?

Where do I start! In the early years it was the accommodation after a show in town, but in later years it's been the use of the Club for business meetings and the use of the various resorts. I think we've been to them all, but our favourites are Healesville any time, Creswick for its regional interest and Inverloch over the summer holidays. The use of the Members' Lounge at Healesville and the pre-dinner drinks are especially appreciated!

ARE YOU AN ACTIVE PARTICIPANT IN THE RACV CLUB COMMUNITY?

We have been to a few talks in the past and held a few functions in the City Club, but we have generally just enjoyed the facilities at the various locations. We have of course met a lot of interesting people over the years and attended two family weddings at RACV Healesville.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE RACV RESORT AND WHY?

It's a hard choice, but probably Inverloch. Summertime warmth, an Ocean View room and the older-style mood of the town make for a relaxed start to each New Year.

OUT & ABOUT

In celebration of spring, it was waitlist only for the fourth edition of this fashion, food and drink extravaganza. Led by esteemed milliner Wendy Scully, this year's Spring Fashion Show — held on Friday 12 September at Level 17, City Club — boasted an array of Melbourne's foremost industry professionals (including headline designer Perri Cutten, Cazinc The Label, Vivienne Lorikeet and designer fashion-hire outlet Your Secret Closet).

Delighted guests dressed in their spring finery savoured a luxurious high tea, including finger sandwiches, hot savouries and sweet treats, such as fluffy scones and mini macarons, by Le Petit Gâteau, while models took to the runway. Professional photography, live fashion drawing and Adrian Dickens' "Let's celebrate the bling" discourse on 1920s jewellery completed this most stylish of afternoons on the Club calendar.

A full house of Aussie football fanatics thrilled to one of the most prestigious events on the RACV Club calendar: the AFL Grand Final Luncheon at Level 17, City Club, which took place on Thursday 25 September.

This unforgettable afternoon for final-countdown attendees offered a premium three-course lunch, a curated beverage package and top-tier entertainment.

Renowned AFL personality Brian Taylor returned as host, leading an elite panel of special guests including Kane Cornes, Nick Riewoldt, Hamish McLachlan and Kate McCarthy, who entertained our enthralled members with their footy high jinks and commentary.

Reciprocal Club

Established in 1892 as a social club for military officers, the United Service Club Queensland is now open to members and guests of all ages, genders and backgrounds. Located on Wickham Terrace, Spring Hill, it's a quiet oasis within the bustle of Brisbane's CBD, with a billiards room, free private parking for Club diners and overnight guests, coworking space and a reading room.

The rich and inclusive heritage of the United Service Club make it a welcoming haven for likeminded visitors. The accommodation options include the Club Suite, superior rooms and standard traditional rooms (including a room for guests with limited mobility), all with ensembles, air-conditioning, digital TVs, free Wi-Fi and personal bars.

RACV Club members need to arrange a letter of introduction prior to visiting Reciprocal Clubs. Details at racv.com.au/club or scan the QR code.
