WELCOME

ROB EVERETT RACV Club General Manager

There's so much to look forward to in October and beyond.

It's all cricket to our sports-loving members with the Annual Cricket Luncheon next month.

Our special guests, legendary captains Mark Taylor and Michael Vaughan, represent the fierce Australian v. English rivalry on the pitch and menu at our showcase City Club cricket luncheon. See our cover story to find out more.

We also highlight the colour and excitement of a major industry accolade for the Members' Dining Room at RACV City Club: taking out the Best Deluxe Restaurant at the 2025 Victorian Accommodation Awards.

Speaking of cricket, we're thrilled to note that RACV Torquay Resort scored a hat trick at the awards, winning the Best Meeting and Events Space of the Year (regional) for the third time running.

RACV Goldfields Resort, Creswick, also won the award for Resort Style Accommodation of the Year. Read all about it on page 11; then book your stay at our award-winning City Club and RACV Resorts.

End-of-year dinners and high-spirited corporate events are a specialty with our business members and their families and friends.

Whether it's festive cocktails under the stars or open-air barbecues at the picturesque RACV Healesville (including degustation wine-and food-matched dinners at Banyalla) or elegant soirées with a stunning city-skyline backdrop at our exceptional City Club venues, we present the best options in full for EOY-to-NYE celebrations, conferences and custom events in our next Highlights edition.

It was wonderful that so many members enjoyed our suites at the MCG and Marvel Stadium throughout the AFL season, particularly during the finals, as well as our standout AFL Grand Final Luncheon at City Club, which was hosted by Brian Taylor.

Keep an eye on the exciting music, entertainment and family activities planned in the stadiums over the coming months.

I was thrilled to see another full event of members at the Spring Fashion Show and High Tea at Level 17, City Club, in September, admiring the spring racing-style fashion from esteemed Melbourne designers, while also enjoying their Le Petit Gâteau favourites in the high tea.

Our spring siesta: six Italian varietals with Club Sommelier Camm Whiteoak takes place on Saturday 4 October at Wine Cellar, City Club. Join Camm as he presents six Italian varietals for your tasting pleasure.

It was fantastic to see our members connecting and sharing their experiences at our recent mentors' finale dinner. Also, for the business enthusiasts, we have an excellent calendar of investors' luncheon guest speakers coming up, including Noel Whittaker and Chris Judd. Head to the What's On page to stay up to date.

We look forward to welcoming you and your guests at RACV Club in October.

'PEAK' INTEREST IN NEW ZEALAND

Aotearoa (New Zealand) is a destination synonymous with spectacular landscapes, a vibrant culture, a creative culinary scene and adventures galore. Discover the best of New Zealand with this handy guide.

With direct flights from Melbourne to Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch and Queenstown, you can get to New Zealand with ease.

RACV members get exclusive benefits on everything from tours, cruises and accommodation to fabulous attractions and experiences when booking through RACV Travel & Experiences.

AUCKLAND

Auckland is New Zealand's largest and most cosmopolitan city, with a vibrant waterfront area, world-class dining and a hive of cultural landmarks. The diverse neighbourhoods give Auckland a cosier feel than you might imagine.

In Auckland's CBD, the Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tāmaki is a must-do itinerary inclusion. For broad city views, head to Sky Tower's three viewing platforms – you can even jump off the Sky Tower if you're feeling bold!

WELLINGTON

As capitals go, Wellington is especially beautiful. Nestled between the glistening harbour and rolling green hills, it's the country's capital both politically and culturally. It's surprisingly compact, affording you more time to explore its top attractions and sample the city's culinary treats.

CHRISTCHURCH

Charming, picturesque and tranquil, Christchurch is a city reborn. Alongside its heritage buildings, the city thrums with creativity, from its bold murals and boutique stores to its excitingly diverse cuisine.

For a culturally rewarding activity, paddle a Māori waka on the Avon River. Take a gondola ride to the summit of Port Hills or soak in the beachside hot pools at He Puna Taimoana.

QUEENSTOWN

With its alpine backdrop, postcard-perfect central lake, quaint boutiques and restaurants and reputation as the Adventure Capital of the World, a trip to Queenstown holds great appeal.

Nature lovers can walk or bike the scenic trails, enjoy a relaxing Lake Wakatipu cruise or try world-class skiing from June to September.

Dine at local institution Fergburger; Balls and Bangles hits many a sweet spot; and gourmet offerings include Rātā, the Jervois Steakhouse and the Grille by Eichardt's.

MILFORD SOUND

Rudyard Kipling called Milford Sound the "Eighth wonder of the world" for good reason. The culmination of jagged peaks, cascading falls and the often-misty weather create an ethereal beauty.

Driving to Milford Sound from Queenstown takes four hours and the route is windy, so many visitors opt to join a coach-cruise tour rather than self-drive. To see the fjords in all their glory, why not book a coach-cruise-fly package?

ROTORUA

Rotorua's geothermal activities make it one of the country's top wellness destinations. The bubbling mud pools, steaming geysers, and therapeutic hot springs soothe and heal. Try the rejuvenating Polynesian Spa or thermal cedar hot tubs at Secret Spot.

TAUPŌ

Gateway to the awe-inspiring Huka Falls, Mt Ruapehu ski fields, and New Zealand's best one-day walk, the Tongariro Crossing, Taupō is a gorgeous town on the shores of the country's largest lake, Lake Taupō.

COVER

TEST THEIR METTLE

Opposing cricket giants ignite the infamous Australian/English rivalry for the famous urn at our blockbuster Ashes cricket luncheon.

The Ashes series between Australia and England is more than a battle for national supremacy. Collective pride is also on the line.

Let the contest begin with the Ashes-inspired Annual Cricket Luncheon on Friday 14 November from 12pm to 3pm at Level 17, City Club.

This year's event brings together two of the most respected leaders in Ashes history, Michael Vaughan and Mark Taylor.

The former England and Australia captains know more than most about the exhilarating highs and demoralising lows of an Ashes series.

Vaughan was awarded an OBE for ending a generation of English pain in the 2005 series. He made his mark in the 2002-2003 series in Australia, scoring three centuries on his way to becoming the first cricketer on the cover of Wisden.

Taylor, the left-handed opener, starred in the 1989 series in "possibly one of the worst sides to ever tour England". He amassed 839 runs at 83.9, including two tons, to help regain the Ashes 4-0 for the first time since 1982-83.

The highs of 1989 contrasted with a batting slump in 1990-91, then peaked again in 1993 in the 4-1 win before captaining series wins in 1994-95 and 1997.

Executive Chef Kyle Doody (pictured below, far right) says the Brits vs the Baggy Greens menu will highlight the best produce of both countries, from Suffolk lamb, Spencer Gulf kingfish to Gippsland dairy-cow beef.

Then there's our iconic barramundi that many an English angler has travelled for — just to get one on the hook and tell the story back in the pub in Blighty about how it almost dragged them into the 'drink'!

Of course, it wouldn't be the RACV Club cricket luncheon without a little menu sledging and tongue-in-cheek references.

"The menu is full of monumental moments in Australian and English cricket history, lovingly told on the plate. Think posh fish and chips retold vs a finger-raised golden duck (four-and-out) 20 pie!

"The great Kerry O'Keeffe, or 'Skull,' as he is affectionately known, gets a spot on our menu with 'Skull' island prawns — what's more iconic than a prawn on the barbie, a frothy or two and the cricket on the wireless?

"As a bonified cricket nuffy, I can't wait," Kyle says.

Ticket price includes a premium three-course lunch and accompanying beverage package.

MEMBER BENEFITS

KEY TO COLLECTORS' HEARTS

The custom-crafted wine racks and locker storage system at Wine Bar, City Club, are both a talking point and point of entry for collectors of fine wine and spirits.

The popularity and exclusivity of Wine Bar's locker system are as one for collectors of fine wines and spirits.

Based on creating a sense of ownership and elevating the member experience, the locker system also provides a practical way of storing favourites from their collection on site.

Nicolas Denino, Food and Beverage Supervisor at Wine Bar, Bourke Street Green and Carbine Bar, says "the Wine Bar locker system is also about deepening members' connection to the venue."

The lockers have become one of Wine Bar's most talked-about features — offering members a personalised and premium experience.

WORDS: NICOLE BITTAR PHOTOS: MATT HARVEY

Due to popular demand globally and growing interest locally, the locker system was introduced at RACV Club amid the uncertainty of Victoria's first Covid-19 lockdown (in March 2020). The timing and immediate popularity served to enhance member engagement and create unique value.

Nic believes the locker system captures such strong member interest due to its rarefied, Club-like component.

"Members love the sense of exclusivity, convenience and the ability to share their favourite bottles in a personalised setting," he says. "It adds a layer of sophistication and belonging that resonates with our clientele."

The chosen few, about 60 Club members, have lockers — with nine vacancies available. Once those vacancies are filled, a waitlist system begins.

How can members secure a locker, and what are the costs and inclusions?

Locker retention is based on per-bottle pricing from a curated spirit list.

"If you purchase a basic bottle, it will secure your locker for six months. Whereas, if you purchase a limited or rare-spirit bottle, it will secure your locker for 12 months," Nic says.

"This includes a personalised nameplate for the locker and a smaller nameplate for your key rings, access to limited releases that have been added to the spirit bottle list and exclusive tasting events."

What a perfect Christmas gift for the wine-and-spirit connoisseur in your life.

Members can secure a locker by emailing the Wine Bar team on city.restaurants@club.racv.com.au or registering their interests directly with Wine Bar staff during their visit.

AWARDS

MEMBERS' DINING ROOM AT ITS DELUXE BEST

RACV City Club and Resorts scooped major awards at this year's prestigious Victorian Accommodation Awards for Excellence.

Victoria's top accommodation providers and hotel staff, including RACV City Club and Resorts, were honoured at the 2025 Victorian Accommodation Awards for Excellence event.

The Members' Dining Room at RACV City Club won the Best Deluxe Restaurant at the 2025 Victorian Accommodation Awards for the second year in a row, accepting the award at a gala event at the Crown Palladium on Thursday 14 August. Congratulations to all our talented culinary and hospitality team on this momentous accolade.

"We're absolutely thrilled to see RACV City Club once again secure a win for its high-quality dining experiences," says Executive General Manager – RACV Leisure, Craig Peachey.

RACV Goldfields Resort, Creswick, (pictured centre) also won the award for Resort Style Accommodation of the Year.

"It's exciting to see our Goldfields Resort recognised this year, but for RACV Torquay Resort to win Best Meeting and Events Space of the Year for the third year running is particularly special — demonstrating our consistent commitment to providing world-class conference and events facilities for our guests," Craig says.

The night of nights for Victorian hotel accommodation providers and their teams, Accommodation Australia (Victoria) – AA (Victoria) recognised venue and service excellence across the state's regulated commercial accommodation sector and celebrated the breadth and diversity of accommodation available to guests.

EXPANSION PLANNED FOR RACV HEALESVILLE COUNTRY CLUB & RESORT

The idyllic appeal of RACV Healesville Country Club & Resort has increased with the development project of an additional 24 new, premium luxury villas.

The proposed, beautifully appointed two-bedroom accommodation will be complemented by new sports and recreation facilities, including a pro golf shop.

RACV Club General Manager Rob Everett says the Club is thrilled to add 24 new two-bedroom villas to our longest owned property – Healesville Country Club & Resort.

“This new accommodation will perfectly complement the increasing number of families staying in the region and also support our conferencing and event business, where many of our guests have to stay off-site when meeting at the Country Club & Resort,” Rob says.

“This expansion plan will enable us to accommodate even more members and guests at our Healesville property in the future. This is an investment into the Yarra Valley region that will help to drive tourism growth,” says RACV Executive General Manager Leisure Craig Peachey.

Construction is set to begin in July 2026 with the new villas expected to be completed for first guests by mid-2027.

Members can find out more about the new facilities planned for the Healesville Country Club & Resort by attending the information sessions detailed below.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

We share insights from RACV Club members Doug and Alison Retchford about why they joined the Club, what they consider are their member benefits and contributions, plus invaluable ideas for potential events/activities.

WHY DID YOU BECOME AN RACV CLUB MEMBER?

We retired in 2001 and had almost finished our four-wheel driving in Australia and touring the world, so looked around for something else that was interesting to occupy us. Doug remembered a friend who had been a Club member who had sung its praises. So, we made enquiries and decided to join.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN A MEMBER?

Since early 2008. Alison took out membership the following year so she could take our daughter, daughter-in-law, grandkids and friends to events and meals.

WHAT DO YOU ENJOY MOST ABOUT MEMBERSHIP?

Using it. The discounts at RACV Resorts and using the billiards room with grandsons.

ARE YOU AN ACTIVE PARTICIPANT IN THE RACV CLUB COMMUNITY?

Very much so. We attend as many dinners, luncheons, lectures and special events as possible. When visiting the city, we also avail ourselves of Bistro for lunch.

WHAT DO YOU OFFER AND GAIN FROM YOUR INVOLVEMENT?

We offer and share in the gift of becoming friends with many other Club members.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE RACV RESORT AND WHY?

We have stayed many times at Cobram in cabins with family and friends. It was terrific when the grandkids were small. We also like Torquay for its amenities and access to the Great Ocean Road.

BREAKING NEW GROUND

Redefining the precarious connection between nature and the human landscape inspires an insightful exhibition on display at RACV City Club.

The Apposite Ground exhibition brings together the evocative works of Janet Laurence, Catherine Nelson and Kate Ballis — three artists who explore the delicate balance between the natural world and human perception.

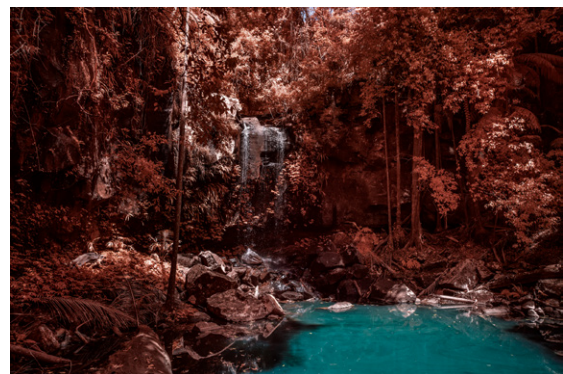

Janet Laurence's transformative installations invite viewers to contemplate the fragility and resilience of our environment, while Catherine Nelson's intricate digital landscapes transport us to fantastical realms where nature's beauty is both preserved and reimagined. Kate Ballis' vibrant, infrared photography reveals unseen dimensions of familiar landscapes, challenging our perceptions and inviting us to see the world anew.

As part of the Ballarat International Foto Biennale, RACV is hosting diverse photography exhibitions across all exhibition spaces from the Gallery Lounge in the City Club, to RACV Goldfields and RACV Inverloch. Explore our website to find out more: www.racv.com.au/art.

● The Apposite Ground Art of Lunch event takes place from 12pm–3:30pm on Saturday 25 October in the Private Dining Room, RACV City Club. Ticket price is $140 per person.

OUT & ABOUT

The Art of Lunch: Ballarat Foto, held on Sunday 24 August at RACV Goldfields Resort, was a standout event where culinary kudos met photographic finesse.

Many RACV Club members flocked to this popular event for foodies and art lovers.

RACV Goldfields Resort's Head Chef, José Sosa, and his team, crafted a three-course menu inspired by the works of our guest photographers, including Hiromi Tango (salmon crudo entrée), Lê Nguyễn Phương (coconut-caramelised pork belly main) and headlining artist Campbell Addy (a coffee stone, brownie, meringue, mousse creation).

Each dish was designed to reflect the colours, emotions and destinations captured in the artists' photography, with a theatrical flourish as chefs finished dishes tableside.

A huge thank you to the Resort's General Manager, Jason Camillo, José and the entire RACV Goldfields team for hosting the event so spectacularly and graciously.

OUT & ABOUT

The exciting, new Latin Fusion Fiesta: a night of rhythm and flavour, held on 29 August at Level 17, City Club to rapturous applause, celebrated the bold flavours, vibrancy and electrifying entertainment of the Latin culture.

Guests arrived to the rousing sounds of a live mariachi band and enjoyed sangria in the pre-function area.

A tapas-style entrée selection included garlic and chilli prawns, saffron potatoes, smoked mussels, salt cod fritters and, of course, Spanish jamón.

Main course featured a showstopping seafood paella with cantimpalo (cured salami) alongside claypot chicken with romesco and fried potatoes.

Dessert options of milk custard flan, churros with chocolate sauce, traditional Santiago cake, and more, ensured all Latin-flavour cravings were sated.

Melbourne sensation SENES Flamenco were captivating, bringing storytelling to life through live Spanish music and flamenco dance.

Reciprocal Club

Founded in 1869, the Northern Club is situated in Auckland's bustling business district. Established in an Italianate-style building designed by James Wrigley, the Clubhouse originally served as the city's largest hotel before being transformed into a private Club. Hidden behind the green leafy 'cloak' and spanning four floors, the Clubhouse is home to modern ensuite accommodation rooms, a range of dining and bars, event spaces, fitness studio, billiards and reading room.

RACV Club members need to arrange a letter of introduction prior to visiting Reciprocal Clubs. Details at racv.com.au/club or scan the QR code.
