RACV TO HOST RECRUITMENT INFORMATION DAYS FOR JOBS ACROSS VICTORIA

RACV is holding information sessions for employment opportunities at the Cape Schanck Resort, Healesville Country Club & Resort and Inverloch Resort.

Each of the resorts is recruiting for a wide variety of positions including cooks, chefs, team leaders, managers, food and beverage attendants and housekeepers.

There are a range of flexible working positions available, from casual roles, permanent part-time and full-time opportunities.

The Recruitment Information Days will be held on Monday, August 8 at Cape Schanck Resort, Monday, August 22 at the Healesville Country Club & Resort and Monday, August 29 at Inverloch Resort.

Each Recruitment Information Day will include two sessions, the first of which starts at 11am and the second at 6pm.

Participants will have the opportunity to interview for some positions immediately. Everyone who attends will also be included in a raffle of prizes.

RACV Resorts General Manager Vince King said the positions are open to all to apply, regardless of background or level of experience. Training will be provided to prepare new staff members.

“There’s a real opportunity here to work at some of Australia’s most luxurious and attractive locations,” Mr King said.

“These roles will play a large part in providing RACV’s exceptional experience to guests.

“The option to be interviewed on the same day is available for those who find a position they’re interested in and are keen to act fast.

“At RACV we foster collaborative team environments, ongoing career development and provide discounts on RACV Resorts, and access to Health and Wellness programs.

“Our goal is to continue to grow our team, support our local communities and provide exceptional experiences that keep people coming back to regional Victoria.”
