

25 May 2015

/15

Victorian brides rate RACV Torquay Resort best for receptions and honeymoons

RACV Torquay Resort won an impressive double at the 2015 Victorian Bridal Awards. The Resort, which has been open less than two years, was voted best in the First Night Honeymoon and Resort Reception categories.

The Awards also recognised RACV City Club as the best Club Reception for the second successive year.

In addition to these accolades, RACV properties featured as finalists in several categories, including:

First Night Honeymoon: RACV City Club and RACV Cape Schanck Resort

Ceremony Venue: RACV Cape Schanck Resort

Function Coordinator: RACV Torquay Resort and RACV Cape Schanck Resort

Resort Reception: RACV Cape Schanck Resort.

The awards were presented by the Australian Bridal Industry Academy (ABIA) and were determined by the ratings, recommendations and reviews of about 6,300 Victorian brides.

The newlyweds considered quality of product, quality of service, value for money and attitude of staff. This year there were 329 nominees and 226 finalists across 38 categories.

Manager RACV Torquay Resort, Dean Newell, said the awards recognised the professionalism and focus on service provided by the RACV team.

“Torquay Resort continues the tradition of high standards delivered by the RACV Club and our resorts and this has led us to becoming an increasingly popular destination for Victorians and interstate visitors,” Mr Newell said.

RACV Torquay Resort has hosted 26 weddings for groups up to 235 people since it opened mid-2013.

Located at number 1 Great Ocean Road, RACV Torquay Resort offers spectacular ocean views and direct beach access. It incorporates a restaurant and bar, day spa, indoor pool and conference and meeting facilities, making it a great wedding and honeymoon venue.

RACV City Club has more than a century of experience in hosting weddings and offers a variety of options at its location in central Melbourne.

RACV Cape Schanck Resort offers a background of rolling greens, pristine bush land and ocean vistas and is ideal for small intimate parties or large celebrations for up to 300 guests.

Media enquiries: RACV Public Affairs Liselotte Geary 03 9790 2717 or 0410 080 746